

Murder at the Murder Mystery Party Suspect Sheets

I recommend you print this booklet on both sides of A4 paper. Choose print on both sides and flip on short edge and it will print in a booklet format.

There's no need to print the whole Case File as I've given you the option to print out each activity and these suspect sheets for your notes.

Beatrice Champion

This is Beatrice Champion. She was not a very nice character and was certainly not popular and now she is dead. Apparently poisoned after drinking a glass of punch at Lady Henrietta Emerald's Murder Mystery Party. But who poisoned her drink?

Madame Futura

Madame Futura claims to be a ghost hunter. However, rumour has it that Beatrice Champion had proof that there was nothing spooky about Madame Futura at all and that she was nothing but a fraud. Could Madame Futura have struck Beatrice down before she could produce the evidence?

Your notes

Scarlett Leigh

Movie star Scarlett Leigh was looking forward to a leading role in a new movie directed by Alfred Hatchback. But Beatrice Campion was putting the money up to make the movie and she wanted Scarlett removed! Perhaps Scarlett took matters into her own hands and removed Beatrice?

Your notes

Lady Henrietta Emerald

Lady Henrietta Emerald had invited almost everyone in Little Puzzling to her murder mystery party. She was planning a fun evening but now there has been a real murder and she is shocked. She was once great friends with Beatrice Campion when they were both much younger.

Your notes

Gerald Garnet

As the butler at Puzzle Hall, Gerald Garnet was serving the punch to guests as they arrived for Lady Henrietta's Murder Mystery Party. That means he must have handed Beatrice her drink and he could have had ample opportunity to pour poison into her drink.

George Letterman

George Letterman, the village's famous author, hasn't been getting along with Beatrice too well lately. Beatrice had started writing a blog about his books and had posted some terrible reviews of his work. Could he have acted out of revenge?

Your notes

Mayor Elizabeth Stamp

Little Puzzling village's Mayor Elizabeth Stamp has had a lot of dealings with Beatrice Champion recently. The mayor was planning a new children's playground in the village but Beatrice wanted to it stopped because it was near her home.

Your notes

Dr Diamond

Dr Diamond was invited to the Murder Mystery Party and was one of the first guests to arrive. Everyone saw him chatting with Beatrice and, as a doctor, he must have had access to poison. Could he be the killer?
